

Country house For Sale in São Brás de Alportel

Ref: Old Mill

Set in the peaceful countryside just minutes from São Brás de Alportel, this enchanting former mill house offers a rare opportunity to restore and reimagine a truly authentic Algarve property. Surrounded by nature and embraced by tranquility, the plot is bordered by two gently flowing streams, creating a private and serene retreat filled with the sounds of water and birdsong.

The generous land features a wonderful variety of mature fruit trees and open countryside, ideal for those seeking a slower pace of life, a self-sufficient lifestyle, or a unique rural getaway. At the heart of the property stands the old mill itself rich in character and waiting to be brought back to life. Many original mill features and pieces of traditional equipment remain in place, offering a fascinating glimpse into the property's history and immense potential for sympathetic restoration.

In addition to the mill house, the property includes several separate outbuildings, including a garage and storage areas, providing flexibility for workshops, or further development subject to permissions.

Despite its peaceful setting, the property is conveniently located close to the vibrant market town of São Brás de Alportel, known for its traditional Portuguese charm, cafés, restaurants, and excellent local amenities. This is a unique chance to create a character-filled countryside home or tourism project in one of the Algarves most authentic and sought-after inland locations.
